food and drink policy

In general, food and drinks are not allowed in the classroom. Because we are often using electronics, it is best to keep food and drink outside of the classroom. A water bottle with a tight lid is allowed and encouraged. A water station will be set up at the first kitchen for students to refill their water bottles during class.

The mission of FCCLA is to promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education. Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner and community leader, members develop skills for life through: character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge, and career preparation.

While I can't require students to join FCCLA, it is a great learning opportunity and many things we do in class directly relate to the mission of FCCLA, and incorporate FCCLA programs. The cost to join FCCLA is $25 and this includes a chapter T-shirt. (9-12th grade)

assignments

Most work will be able to be completed in class if students use their time wisely. The exception to this would be their professional learning assignment, but adequate time will be given to complete this assignment.

If students do not complete work during class, in the time allotted, it will be assigned as homework so students can adhere to the determined deadlines.

policy for absences and grades

Grades will be updated weekly (bell ringers, participation, and assignments). Please check grades regularly and feel free to ask me before or after class any questions that you might have about a particular grade.

If you are absent, you are responsible for completing your make-up work (one day for make-up for each day absent).

All assignments will be posted on Google Classroom. It is your responsibility to ask a classmate or me for help on making up any assignments and/or to meet with Mrs. Vaughn to make up any tests, quizzes or labs.

If you know you are going to be absent beforehand, you should ask me for your make-up work before the absence.

This can be done before or after school, during seminar or via e-mail.

electronic devices

Electronic devices (phones, ipods, etc) are to be turned into the box in the back of the room, or left in student's locker. Students will on occasion be able to use their phone for learning purposes, but otherwise will need to left in the box or in their locker. If a student is caught using their phone, the following consequences will follow:

First of fense: Student will turn the phone into the teacher until the end of class.

Second of fense: Student will turn the phone into the teacher until the end of day.

Third of fense: Phone will be turned into office and parents or student will have to pick it up at the end of the day.
